NATALIE SHIRK:

I feel like I've grown more as a person at HACC. I've gotten to meet a lot of new people. And in my math class, actually, I've never liked math, but we're doing a course online through Stanford and it teaches you that math is for everyone and you don't have to be good at it, but you can be good at it when you practice. I wasn't really open to coming to HACC at first, but my mom kind of convinced me that I should. And now that I am here, I'm glad I made the choice. I would definitely recommend HACC to other people. I think it's a great school and it's kind of changed me as a person already, and it's my second semester, but it's made me more open to new ideas and getting to know new people.
