

Wileidy Estepan

[WILEIDY ESTEPAN, a HACC alumna, sits in front of a window, wearing a light-colored shirt. She is speaking to an interviewer off camera.]

WILEIDY ESTEPAN:

So what I like most about the business program HACC was that the classes, most of the classes that I took there were very similar to real work experience. And I can tell that, that I'm working now in the field, that they don't go by the books. And I think it helps a lot when you're, like, really working. I felt prepared to enter the workforce after my time at HACC. It is the best option, like in Lancaster that you will have. It is affordable. And when you need help, you will get it. You just need to ask for it. And everyone is willing to help.